Chamber Singers is a small ensemble of selected voices which was organized during the fall of 1968. Like chamber instrumental groups, this ensemble specializes in literature composed for one performer on a part. Their repertoire includes Renaissance madrigals, chansons, part-songs and opera ensembles as well as 20th century works for solo voices. Performances are enhanced by the use of authentic accompanying instruments, such as harpsichord, hand drums and portative organ.

Chamber Singers is available for a limited number of off-campus performances.
