Dr. Peter Steenblik is the newly appointed Director of Choral Activities at the University of West Florida. Previously, he was the director of the Women's Chorus at the University of North Texas where he also completed a doctoral degree in conducting. His master's and bachelor's degrees are both from the University of Utah. He was director of choirs at Jordan High School in Salt Lake City for 10 years. Steenblik has served as the head of choral activities for the Utah Music Educators Association (2010-2012) and his students have appeared in concert with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, Women's Chorus of Dallas, Utah Symphony, Ballet West, and University of Utah choirs. A former member of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, Steenblik made frequent solo appearances. He is a four-time assistant director for the Utah Ambassadors of Music European tour, and spent five summers working as a backpacking instructor in the Catskill Mountains of New York.

Bolton Ellenberg, from Pensacola, is enrolled in the bachelor's program at the Cleveland Institute of Music as a student of Antonio Pompa-Baldi. Ellenberg has performed as soloist with the Northwest Florida Symphony Orchestra and Brevard Music Festival Orchestra, among others. Additionally, he has been a prize-winner in several competitions, including the Brevard Music Festival Concerto Competition and the Arthur Fraser International Concerto Competition, and has performed in master classes for artists such as Gilbert Kalish. In addition to music, he enjoys literature, studying Korean, and chess. Bolton is very excited to be working as the UWF choir accompanist.
