

It Takes a Village:

Getting the Most Out of Your Student Leaders

Dr. Peter Steenblik

University of West Florida

FMEA – Jan. 13, 2017, 7:45 am

Group Discussion:

Think of a time when your teacher or mentor involved you in a task that they could have done without you. What did that do for you? How did that affect you? What did you learn from (or about) them in that moment?

The Mission Statement:

A one-sentence statement describing the reason an organization or program exists (what they do), which is used to guide priorities, activities, and responsibilities. – topnonprofits.com

Using 1-5 words, answer each of these questions:

- What type of choir are you?

- What do the singers hope to gain from being a part of this group?

- What do you hope your singers gain or accomplish while being a part of this group?

- What is the “next step” for the participants?

Space provided to begin creation of the mission statement for your ensemble:

Space provided to begin outlining your leadership tree:

Additional notes: