All Things Bright and Beautiful
 Cecil F. Alexander, Ireland, 1818-1895

All things bright and beautiful, [The cold wind in the winter,
 All creatures great and small, The pleasant summer sun,
 All things wise and wonderful, The ripe fruits in the garden,
 The Lord God made them all. He made them every one.

Each little flower that opens, The tall trees in the greenwood,
 Each little bird that sings, The meadows where we play,
 He made their glowing colours, The rushes by the water,
 He made their tiny wings. We gather every day;

[The rich man in his castle, He gave us eyes to see them,
The poor man at his gate, And lips that we might tell,
God made them, high or lowly, How great is God Almighty,
And ordered their estate.] Who has] made all things well.

The purple-headed mountain,
 The river running by,
 The sunset, and the morning,
 That brightens up the sky;
